ST. THOMAS — Another gunpoint robbery incident has occurred at the Havensight Mall in St. Thomas, police spokesman Toby Derima has announced.

According to the V.I.P.D. news release, on Saturday at 10:34 p.m., the 911 Emergency Call Center dispatched officers to Havensight Mall to investigate the robbery of a male victim. The victim, accompanied by two females, was allegedly approached by a male suspect wearing a red hoodie who attempted to rob him of his jewelry. The suspect and the victim were engaged in a physical altercation when a second male suspect, attired in a black hoodie, approached the two with a handgun, according to the release.

The suspects, driving a gray sedan, managed to flee the area with the victim's jewelry, according to police. None of the victims were harmed.

The V.I.P.D.'s asking anyone with information regarding this incident to call 911, the Criminal Investigation Bureau at (340) 774-2211, or Crime Stoppers USVI here.
