The deceased victim was identified by next of kin as Jose M. Riviera, age 21, who sustained multiple gunshot wounds. According to police spokesman Toby Derima, the V.I.P.D. has a person of interest in custody.

Commissioner Martinez condemned the homicide and said the V.I.P.D. would investigate the crimes with fervor. To that end, the commissioner issued a passionate plea to the public to provide information that may lead to the arrest of the perpetrator (s). "We are reaching out to the public again. We appreciate the assistance they have provided in the past and we are looking forward to them coming forward to provide us with information regarding Tuesday's incident in Red Brick," he said.

He added, "During the holiday season where we should be celebrating, we are faced with another unfortunate violent crime incident that shows that there are individuals in our community who prefer to settle differences through violence. This is not going to be tolerated, and we're going to continue to investigate this incident as well as all of the violent crime matters with utmost diligence and fervor."
