The V.I. Bureau of Motor Vehicles said late Monday that customers in St. Thomas with appointments will be rescheduled either via text message or a phone call as the bureau's office will be closed from today and will reopen Jan. 10.

BMV did not state a reason for the complete closure of its office in St. Thomas.

Customers are encouraged to visit the BMV website at bmv.vi.gov to access the following services, access forms and instructions and conduct business with the BMV:

- Renew vehicle registration
- Make appointments

- Renew Driver's License
- Renew ID cards and obtain duplicate cards
- Replacement Drivers License
- Obtain duplicate Title
- Obtain duplicate stickers
- Address change

Persons doing business at any of the BMV offices are required to wear a mask, and practice social distancing, according to the release.

BMV Director Barbara Jackson-McIntosh apologized for any inconvenience the closure may have caused. For more information, visit the BMV website at bmv.vi.gov or call BMV offices at 340-774-4268, 340-713-4268 or 340-776-6262.
