

The Virgin Islands Consortium

VIPD Seeking Community's Assistance to Locate Woman Who Went Missing Monday

Community Center / Published On March 17, 2022 09:44 AM /

Staff Consortium March 17, 2022

Picture of Mikerlange Damier. By. THE VIRGIN ISLANDS POLICE DEPARTMENT

ST. THOMAS — The V.I. Police Department is seeking the community's assistance to locate a woman whose husband on Tuesday morning reported her missing, according to a V.I.P.D. release issued Thursday morning.

According to the release, on Tuesday at approximately 7:47 a.m., a citizen visited the Richard Callwood Command in St. Thomas and reported that his wife, Mikerlange Damier, went missing. The man stated that his wife was last seen on Monday, March 14 and he has not heard from her since.

Mrs. Damier is 35 years old; she is about 5 feet, 5 inches tall, weighs 170 pounds, is slim and has black hair, according to a description of the woman provided by the V.I.P.D.

Mrs. Damier was last seen wearing a grey shirt, black long pants, and a bonnet on her head whose color was unknown. She also wore a jacket, but its color was unknown as well, according to police.

The V.I.P.D. is asking anyone with information about the whereabouts of Mrs. Damier, or if you've seen her, to contact the Criminal Investigation Bureau at 340-774-2211 ext., 5554. You may also contact the Major Crimes Unit at 340-642-8449, or the Chief's Office at 340-715-5548.

Additionally, you can contact Crime Stoppers USVI here with an anonymous tip.