ST. THOMAS — A man was shot to death in St. Thomas Saturday morning, the V.I. Police Department has announced.

V.I.P.D. Director of Communications Glen Dratte said that a citizen called 911 and reported that a male had been shot in the vicinity of a scrap metal shop located in Bovoni. Officers responded and discovered an unresponsive male. The male appeared to have suffered multiple gunshot wounds about the body. Emergency Medical Technicians found no vital signs on the victim.

Next of kin identified the male as 57-year-old Juan Feliciano, according to police. The case is currently under investigation.

The police department is asking anyone with information about this crime to call (340-774-2211) or the Criminal Investigation Unit's Major Crimes Division at 340-642-8449. You can also contact Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
