

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Update: Woman Who Went Missing April 7 Found Safe

Community Center / Published On April 16, 2022 06:17 AM /

Staff Consortium April 16, 2022

Jenna Rose Vonsas By. THE VIRGIN ISLANDS POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Update: According to the V.I.P.D., Jenna Rose Vonsas was located in Red Hook on Sunday at 12:45p.m. Vonsas expressed gratitude for the public's concern and said she's alright. The VIPD offered sincere appreciation for the community's assistance and continued support.

Original Story: ST. THOMAS — The V.I. Police Department is seeking the community's assistance in locating a woman who went missing in St. Thomas April 7.

According to the police department, on Friday, April 15, a citizen contacted the Mariel C. Newton Command, Zone C and reported that her sister Jenna Rose Vonsas is missing. The female stated that she last spoke with her sister on April 7th , 2022 and has not heard from her since.

Vonsas is a 32-year-old Caucasian female standing 5 feet, 5 inches tall who weighs about 130 pounds. She has blonde hair, hazel eyes and is slim-built. Vonsas has several tattoos about her body; her attire is unknown.

The VIPD is asking anyone with information about the whereabouts of Jenna Rose Vonsas to contact the Criminal Investigations Bureau at 340-774-2211 Major Crimes Cell phone 340-642-8449 Crime Stoppers V.I. (800) 222-8477 or call 911.