ST. THOMAS — The V.I. Police Department said it is investigating the death of a woman from Indiana who was found unresponsive in an apartment located in West Caret Bay.

According to police spokesman Glen Dratte, on Monday at about 1:41p.m., a male individual contacted 911 and reported that he traveled to the residence of his female friend and discovered her unresponsive in her apartment in West Caret Bay.

Emergency Medical Technicians responded to the scene, checked the female, and discovered she had no vital signs, according to the police report.

The woman was identified as 37-year-old Megan Frazier from Indiana. The cause of death is unknown pending an autopsy, the V.I.P.D. said. There were no apparent signs of foul play, according to the police report.

The police department is asking anyone with information about this incident to call the Criminal Investigation Unit's Major Crimes Division at 340-642-8449. You may also send an anonymous tip to Crime Stoppers USVI here.
