

logo not found or type unknown

St. Lucia Tourism Authority Announces 2020 Jazz Festival Lineup and Details

Entertainment / Published On January 15, 2020 07:32 PM /

Staff Consortium January 15, 2020

Image not found or type unknown

ST. LUCIA — At the 2020 Jazz Congress conference held at Jazz at Lincoln Center in New York City on January 13, St. Lucia Tourism Authority and Jazz at Lincoln Center announced the official dates and artist lineup for the 2020 Saint Lucia Jazz Festival Produced in Collaboration with Jazz at Lincoln Center.

The festival, to be held on the island Thursday, May 7 through Saturday, May 9, 2020, follows the success of the inaugural 2019 Saint Lucia Jazz Festival Produced in Collaboration with Jazz at Lincoln Center which Jazziz magazine called “the Caribbean’s premier jazz destination.”

This year’s festival will feature the finest names in modern jazz performing in venues throughout St. Lucia’s distinct Caribbean landscape, including The Ramp on Rodney Bay and Gros Islet

Park.

The three-day festival will feature world renowned artists who have performed on Jazz at Lincoln Center's season concerts, touring initiatives, and global outposts, as well as throughout Saint Lucia Jazz Festival's 28-year history.

To date, the diverse lineup showcases artists spanning the Caribbean, the U.K. and the U.S. including: Chick Corea's Vigilette with Carlitos Del Puerto, Marcus Gilmore and Special Guest.

Roy Hargrove Celebration with Willie Jones III featuring Renée Neufville and Special Guests.

Alphonso Horne and The Gotham Kings, Ruben Fox's London Brass featuring Theon Cross and Mark Kavuma, Maher Beauroy presents WASHA!

More performances, details about ticket sales and event information to be announced.

In addition to world-class performances, the 2020 Saint Lucia Jazz Festival will feature "Artists In Education" initiatives including master classes, professional development, and live performance collaborations with Saint Lucia School of Music students and local jazz artists.

"Building upon last year's successful inaugural year of the partnership with Jazz at Lincoln Center, the 2020 Saint Lucia Jazz Festival is a combination of premier jazz with a picture-perfect destination," said Tourism Minister Dominic Fedee. "Saint Lucia is thrilled to once again bring world-class performances to jazz fans and music aficionados who will travel to Saint Lucia from around the globe."

Saint Lucia has been hosting a vibrant jazz festival annually since 1992. For more than 28 years, the festival has attracted visitors from around the world for events and concerts celebrating multiple forms of international, Saint Lucian and Caribbean jazz music.