

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Florida Police Searching For Man Who Allegedly Abducted 6-Year-Old Child and Could be in St. Thomas

Community Center / Published On September 05, 2022 09:47 AM /

Staff Consortium September 05, 2022

Jorge "JoJo" Morales, age 6.

The V.I. Police Department announced Monday that the Florida Department of Law Enforcement has put out an AMBER ALERT for a child who went missing out of Miami and could possibly be in St. Thomas. Law enforcement authorities in Florida believe the child was abducted by his father.

Authorities are searching for Jorge "Jo Jo" Morales, age 6, who was last seen on Aug. 27 on Southwest 184th Avenue in Miami.

Jorge Gabriel Morales, age 45, the child's father, is wanted for the interference of custody and concealing a minor contrary to a court order in connection with the disappearance of Jorge Jo Jo Morales, according to the Miami-Dade Police Department.

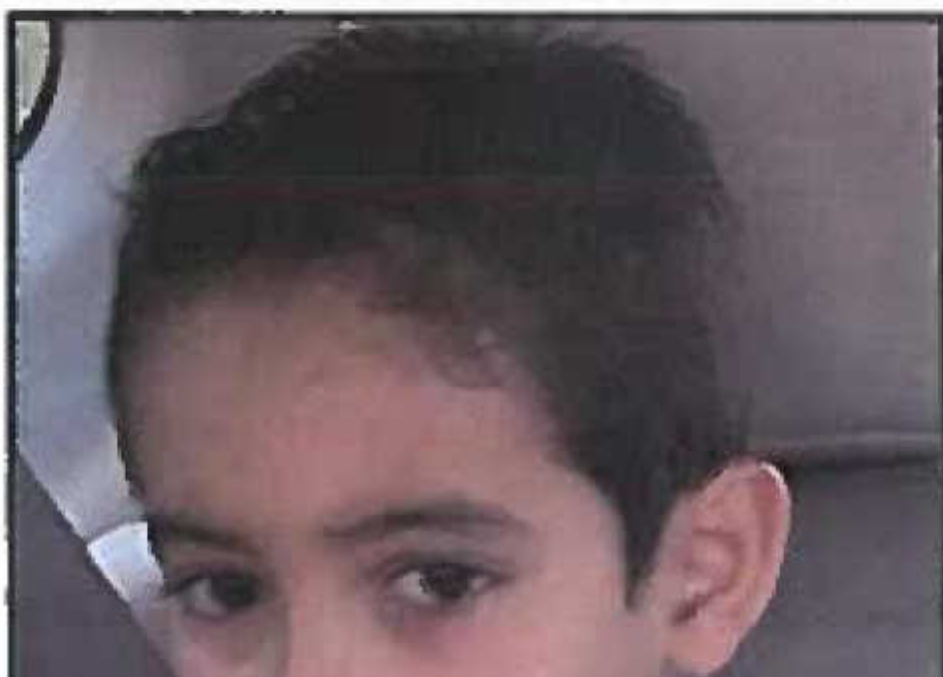

Miami-Dade
Special

1701 NW 8
PHONE: (30

PUBL

MISSIN

JU

Florida authorities say there's information that Jorge Morales may be in St Thomas. If seen or if you know the whereabouts of Jorge Morales, and/or the missing 6-year-old boy, Jorge "Jo Jo" Morales, call 911 immediately, the Major Crime Bureau Tip-Line at 340-642-8449, or send an anonymous tip to Crime Stoppers USVI here.

© Viconsortium 2026