The V.I. Department of Human Services announced Tuesday that the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food and Nutrition Services has approved the Virgin Islands 2022 Summer Pandemic Electronic Benefit Transfer (P-EBT) Plan for eligible School Children.

Summer P-EBT benefits will be issued through the U.S. Virgin Islands' Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) EBT card system to households with eligible children who were enrolled in USVI public and private schools during the last month of the 2022 school year, (May 2022) which participated in the National School Lunch Program. DHS said it will begin issuing Summer P-EBT benefits to eligible school children on Tuesday, October 11 (today).

What is SUMMER 2022 P-EBT?

P-EBT was funded by the Family First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA as amended by the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA). Benefits are available for all Virgin Islands SNAP and non-SNAP households with children who were enrolled in locally registered public, private, and parochial schools, grades (K – 12) who have temporarily lost access to free meals due to pandemic-related public and private school closures or due to Covid related absences.

Summer 2022 P-EBT is an extension to the FNS State approved plan to operate Pandemic EBT for eligible school children during Summer 2022. The benefit provides food assistance via an Electronic Benefit Card that can be used in participating grocery stores and convenience stores for food items. Unlike regular SNAP, which is renewable based on eligibility, Summer P-EBT is a one-time benefit issuance for households with eligible children who were enrolled in in USVI public, private, and parochial schools, which participated in the National School Lunch Program, in May 2022, effectively the last

“I am excited for DHS to be able to issue this one-time Summer P-EBT Benefits of $455.00 to all eligible children in the U.S. Virgin Islands," stated DHS Commissioner Causey-Gomez. "Even though we are seeing lower numbers of COVID positive cases in both districts, we know that families are still experiencing residual financial challenges because of the Pandemic. This year's issuance of Summer P-EBT will give some additional help to our families with children to avoid food insecurity. I am thankful for the continued above and beyond services our Division of Family Assistance provides to our Virgin Islanders.”

Who is eligible for Summer 2022 P-EBT? School-Age Children:

- a. All students (K through Grade 12) who were enrolled in USVI public, private, and parochial schools, which participated in the National School Lunch Program during the month of May 2022.
- b. Students will receive Summer P-EBT across all learning modes: In- Person, Full Virtual or HybridMix of Virtual and In-Person.
- c. There is no application process. The Virgin Islands Department of Education and eligible private or parochial schools provided DHS the names of students during the month of May 2022.
