

The Virgin Islands Consortium

Manhunt Underway in St. Croix for Attempted Murder Suspect; Public Cautioned

Crime / Published On June 05, 2023 06:26 PM /

Staff Consortium June 05, 2023

Mugshot of Calvin Parker. By. THE VIRGIN ISLANDS POLICE DEPARTMENT

ST. CROIX — The V.I. Police Department has launched an extensive search for a man wanted for attempted murder. Calvin Parker, a 24-year-old St. Croix resident, is considered armed and dangerous. The public is urged to remain vigilant and report any sightings to law enforcement.

Parker is a male, standing at approximately 5'10" with a weight of 130 lbs. He has a dark complexion, brown eyes, and distinctive black hair with blonde tips. He is identified as Black.

Local law enforcement has noted that Parker is known to frequent the area of Marley Homes. If individuals in the vicinity notice any suspicious activities, they are encouraged to reach out to the authorities immediately.

The VIPD also issued a stern warning to the public against harboring the wanted man. "If you are found to be harboring Calvin Parker, you could find yourself facing serious legal consequences," warned a spokesperson for the Criminal Investigation Bureau.

Individuals with any information relating to Parker's whereabouts are urged to contact 911 or the Criminal Investigation Bureau directly at 340-712-6090. You may also send an anonymous tip to Crime Stoppers USVI here, or via phone at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477). Callers may remain anonymous, and any information could be vital in locating and apprehending this dangerous individual.