The V.I. Economic Development Authority (VEDA) has announced a Governing Board Decision Meeting, slated to take place on Tuesday, July 25, 2023, at 9 a.m. In accordance with the Virgin Islands Code Annotated Title 1, Section 254, as amended, the meeting will deliberate on application and compliance issues concerning the V.I. Economic Development Commission. It will also address matters pertaining to the Economic Development Bank and the Economic Development Authority.

Due to the ongoing public health considerations, the meeting will be conducted via Zoom, a software-based platform that facilitates audio and video communication. Interested parties are invited to attend virtually.

To join the meeting, follow this Zoom link:

Please note that registration in advance is mandatory.

Attendees are further advised that the VIEDA Board of Directors and its subsidiary Board(s) may go into executive session at any point during the meetings as stipulated in 1 V.I.C. § 254.

For further information about the meeting, interested parties can contact the VIEDA at telephone number 340-773-6499 on St. Croix or 340-714-1700 on St. Thomas, USVI.

This meeting serves as an opportunity for stakeholders and the public to engage with the process of economic development in the Virgin Islands, underscoring the VIEDA's commitment to transparency and stakeholder engagement.

The public notice was signed by Wayne L. Biggs, Jr., Chief Executive Officer of VIEDA.
