ST. THOMAS — Allen Eugene Hall, a 29-year-old fugitive wanted in the State of Texas, was apprehended at Cyril E. King Airport on Sunday, August 13. The arrest was facilitated by the combined efforts of the Criminal Investigation Bureau and the Custom Border Patrol (CBP) who initially detained Hall.

An NCIC background check revealed that Hall is sought in Texas due to outstanding warrants related to two counts of sexual assault.

Upon apprehension, Hall was promptly arrested, booked, and processed. Authorities have decided against setting bail in his case. The Criminal Investigation Bureau is actively investigating the matter.

The bureau urges anyone with information related to this case to step forward. They can be reached at (340)774-2211. For those wishing to remain anonymous, tips can also be submitted via 911 or through Crime Stoppers V.I. at 1(800)222-TIPS.
