ST. CROIX — Police investigators early Tuesday morning discovered a human body in the bushes across from Cramer Park Beach on the East End, Police Spokesman Toby Derima has confirmed to the Consortium.
The body, that of a young black male, was partially decomposed and was punctured by a gunshot wound, leading police to classify the incident as a homicide.

The victim's identity as of Tuesday afternoon had not been confirmed, and police provided a description of the deceased so that relatives could contact the V.I.P.D. Mr. Derima said as of Tuesday afternoon a missing person report had not been filed.

The deceased was described as a black male with a medium build standing between 6 feet-6 feet, 3 inches tall. His hair was described a black afro, and he wore a square diamond earring on his left ear. The victim was wearing a black t-shirt, blue jeans, green plaid boxers and a pair of black Nike slippers, according to police.

Sion Farm shooting

A shooting in Sion Farm mid-morning Tuesday rattled the community, with Mr. Derima stating that the incident was classified as reckless endangerment. He said there were multiple gunshots fired but no report of injuries.
